

Idaho STEM Ecosystem

at a glance

Mission

The Idaho STEM Ecosystem ((EcosySTEM) engages partners to foster STEM learning experiences and expand career pathways in every Idaho community.

Vision

Every Idahoan has access to a lifetime of opportunities through STEM.

Contact

EcosySTEM Director

Erica Compton

erica@idahostem.org

WHO WE ARE

The EcosySTEM is a network of collaborators including:

- PreK-12 public schools
- Higher education
- Out-of-school organizations
- Business & industry
- Indigenous populations
- Non-profits
- Libraries
- State & local government agencies
- Legislature
- Early childhood organizations

FY2024 IMPACTS

9,751 Students

1,592 Industry and Business Personnel

4,506 Educators

506 Government Officials

72 Grants Awarded
$323,532 Awarded

180 Partner Organizations

Get Involved

Join our Community Platform to connect with partners across the state and support STEM education and workforce development.

530+

Active Members

8

Content-Focused Groups

community.idahostem.org

REGIONAL HUBS

Our regional hub structure provides localized support with expert hub coordinators and regional leadership committees.

STEM INNC:
Region 1 & 2

SWISH:
Region 3

ISEE STEM:
Regions 4, 5, & 6

KEY INITIATIVES

Regional Initiatives

- Grant Funding
- Working Groups and Leadership Committees
- Regional STEM Events

Statewide Programs & Initiatives

- Idaho EcosySTEM Student Ambassadors
- Idaho Exhibition of Ideas (IDX)
- Idaho Science and Engineering Fairs (IDSEF)
- Advisory Committee

IDAHO BUSINESS
for EDUCATION

IDAHO
STEM
ACTION CENTER
FOUNDING MEMBER - IDAHO ECOSYSTEM

We are a division of Idaho Business for Education (IBE), a nonprofit composed of more than 250 business leaders across the state. Founding member, Idaho STEM Action Center provides financial support to the EcosySTEM.